1. THE ORGANISATION

The European Joint Undertaking for ITER and the Development of Fusion Energy ('Fusion for Energy' or F4E) plays a key role in realising fusion as a possible future source of energy by providing the European contributions to the ITER International fusion energy project and the Broader Approach Agreement with Japan as well as by preparing for the construction of a demonstration fusion reactor.

In its role as the Euratom Domestic Agency for ITER, F4E:

- Oversees preparation of the ITER project site in Cadarache, France;
- Provides in kind components, equipment, materials and other resources to ITER;
- Manages procurement arrangements with ITER ;
- Coordinates Euratom's participation in the scientific exploitation of ITER;
- Provides for the implementation of R&D activities in support ITER;
- Provides Euratom's financial contribution to ITER;
- Provides arrangements to make human resources available for ITER.

In its role as the Implementing Agency for the Broader Approach Agreement with Japan, F4E:

- Provides components, equipment and other resources for the Broader Approach (BA);
- Coordinates Euratom's participation in the Broader Approach implementation ;
- Provides for the implementation of associated R&D activities;
- Provides the Euratom financial contribution to the Broader Approach;
- Arranges to make human resources available for the Broader Approach.

In preparation for the construction of a demonstration fusion reactor (DEMO) and related facilities including the International Fusion Materials Irradiation Facility (IFMIF), F4E will implement a programme of research, development and design activities.

For further information about the structure and tasks of F4E, please consult the website at <http://fusionforenergy.europa.eu>

2. JOB DESCRIPTION - RESPONSIBILITIES

As a member of the ITER Department of F4E, the Technical Officer will work in the Analysis and Codes Group of the Technical Support Services Unit to provide expertise, develop specifications and follow up sub-contracted activities in the area of Seismic Engineering, Structural Dynamics and Computational Mechanics. He/she will report directly to the Analysis and Codes Group Leader.

The successful candidate will, among other tasks:

- Define the technical specifications and the quality control documents relative to study contracts and handle their technical implementation and follow-up with European Associations and Industries;
- Provide technical guidance to the development of computational models (either to be carry out by external contractors or in house) as well as their experimental and/or numerical benchmark;
- Exercise technical follow-up of study contracts with EU Universities, Associations and Industries;
- Provide technical review and assessments of ITER systems, structures and components, in particular by aiming at the comprehension of the key systems features, their modeling and performance assessment;
- Prepare internal documentation such as: memorandums, presentations, work plans and monitoring reports among others, including any required interfacing activity with other F4E groups like Procurement Group within Contracts and Procurements Unit and Planning and Scheduling Group within Project Office Unit.
- Coordinate F4E R&D activities of relevance to the procurement of the EU-ITER share;
- Liaise on behalf of F4E with the relevant ITER International Organisation Technical Responsible Officers and represent F4E in the relevant International Committees and Working Groups.

For reasons related to the 'Fusion for Energy' operational requirements, the candidate will be required to be available at short notice.

5. SELECTION PROCEDURE

A Selection Committee will be set up for the selection process. The eligibility of candidates will be assessed by the Committee according to compliance with all formal requirements by the closing date for the submission of applications. Any applications which do not meet the requirements specified in a vacancy notice (i.e. incomplete applications, applications submitted after the deadline or which do not meet the detailed criteria listed under 'the eligibility criteria') will be rejected.

Eligible candidates who meet all essential selection criteria and have the best profiles for the specific needs will be invited for an interview, which will be held mainly in English. Candidates invited for an interview will be requested to present for verification all documents supporting every educational achievement and work experience they have referred to in the application.

The interview will focus in particular on the candidate's specialist knowledge in the field of the selection and his/her knowledge of the main developments in European integration and Community policies. The interview is also designed to evaluate his/her linguistic skills and ability to adjust to working in a multicultural environment.

The interview sessions will be held in Barcelona, Spain.

Please note that the Selection Committee's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden.

After the interviews, the Selection Committee will draw up a reserve list with the most suitable candidates, which will be adopted by the Appointing Authority and will be valid until 31 December 2014 and may be extended. As soon as this decision is taken, successful candidates will be informed. However, candidates should note that inclusion in the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment.

Please note that a binding commitment can only be made after verification of all conditions and will take form of a contract signed by the Director of 'Fusion for Energy', on proposal by the Selection Committee. If at any stage of the procedure it is established that any of the information a candidate provided is incorrect, this candidate will be disqualified.

The present vacancy notice is subject to the availability of budget and posts in the establishment plan of the Joint Undertaking, as decided by the EU budgetary authority.
